

FSI Fraud Security Investigations is currently involved in undercover research and investigation of major mortgage fraud operations. The cases are provocative and widespread with a major network of operatives and fraudsters, and which has successfully contravened all regulatory safeguards and protective measures designed to protect the public trust.

Stay tuned for more developments in what the founder and President of FSI, Mr. Gerry Jutsun, states is the most egregious and widespread fraud in the history of Canada!